Re: Zandman v. Citibank, N.A., et al., No. 7:18-00791

Dear Judge Davison:

We represent Defendant New York Yankees Partnership (the “Yankees”) in the above-referenced case and write to request an adjournment – on consent – of the date of the initial court conference set for June 29, 2018.

We previously requested an adjournment of the date of a similar conference, which was set for May 23, 2018 before the Judge Nelson S. Román, who cancelled the conference, and directed the parties to complete a Case Management Plan and Scheduling Order, which the parties completed and the Court “so ordered.” (See ECF Nos. 16 and 21.) As noted, counsel for Citibank, N.A. and Jerry Zandman, have informed me that they consent to this request; counsel for all parties can be available for the conference on July 6 or 11, 2018 (subject to the Court’s schedule). No other scheduled dates will be impacted by this request for an adjournment.

If the foregoing request is acceptable, I request that the Court “so order” this letter and set a new date for the conference. Please contact the undersigned if there are any questions about the foregoing.

Respectfully submitted,

Donald E. Watnick
